Specification

The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it fails to adequately describe the applicants claimed invention. It is noted that a lid is claimed in each independent claim and that the current abstract fails to mention that there is a lid. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Objections

Claims 95-97 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form.

Claim 95 is a duplicate of Claim 89.

Claim 96 is a duplicate of Claim 90

Claim 97 is a duplicate of Claim 91.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 80-102 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-40 of U.S. Patent No. 5,455,662. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because Claims 80-102 claim essentially the same or obvious variations as previously claimed in U. S. Patent No. 5,455,662. It is noted that U.S. Patent No. 5,455,662 claims a developer container that includes: a hollow cylindrical main body; a mouth portion on one end, the mouth portion being smaller in diameter; first and second ramp surfaces; at least one spiral groove for guiding developer to the first and second ramp surfaces; a lid for closing the mouth portion and a lug extending out from substantially the center of the lid. Consequently, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made that based upon a comparison of the above noted claims, the subject matter now being claimed is not patentably distinct from that which was claimed previously in U.S. Patent No. 5,455,662 because both the patent and the current application contain essentially the same elements.
